

Additional Mentorship Resources

The AAS Mentorship Scheme has been developed after wide consultation and inputs from various career mentorship schemes around the world. We specially acknowledge consulting and adapting some materials from the following - the Malaria Capacity Development Consortium mentorship scheme; the Academy of Medical Sciences Mentorship programme; AuthorAID mentorship programme; the Royal Society Mentoring scheme among many others. The AAS partners, staff and Affiliates have also contributed to the design of this scheme. The resources below are in addition to those prepared by The AAS to help gain the most out of mentoring relationships.
